Office of Victim Services

Interstate Compact Notification

"Giving Kansas crime victims a voice in corrections by providing information, services and support with compassion and respect"

Services for Crime Victims

The Kansas Crime Victims' Bill of Rights recognizes the following individuals as crime victims:

“Any person who suffers direct or threatened physical, emotional or financial harm as a result of the commission or attempted commission of a crime against a person”

The definition of victim includes:

- Spouse or Surviving Spouse
- Children
- Parents or Stepparents
- Siblings
- Legal Guardians
- Grandparents

Witnesses and other family members may be included.

Victims of any offender under Department of Corrections supervision may be eligible for victim services. This includes offenders supervised by Kansas Interstate Compact that are on Parole, Community Corrections, and Court Services supervision.

The office of Victim Services does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, religion, sex, disability, and age in the delivery of services

If you have any concerns/complaints about the services you received, please contact the Director of Victim Services at 785-296-7429 or jenniew@kdoc.ks.gov.

Helpful Definitions

Receiving State: A state to which an offender requests transfer of supervision or is transferred.

Reporting Instructions: The orders given to an offender by a sending or receiving state directing the offender to report to a designated person or place, at a specified date and time, in another state. Reporting instructions shall include place, date and time on which the offender is directed to report in the receiving state.

Retaking: The act of a sending state in physically removing an offender, or causing to have an offender removed, from a receiving state.

Sending State: A state requesting the transfer of an offender, or which transfers supervision of an offender, under the terms of the Compact and its rules.

Significant Violation: An offender's failure to comply with the terms or conditions of supervision that, if occurring in the receiving state, would result in a request for revocation of supervision.

Special Condition: A condition or term that is added to the standard conditions of parole or probation by either the sending or receiving state.

Subsequent Receiving State: A state to which an offender is transferred that is not the sending state or the original receiving state.

Temporary Travel Permit: The written permission granted to an offender, whose supervision has been designated “victim-sensitive” matter to travel outside the supervising state for more than 24 hours but no more than 31 days. A travel permit shall include a starting and ending date for travel.
